Rules & Regulations

Requirements:

- Players must have their own Judo (Aikido) uniform and belt

Rules:

- Each school is allowed to register up to 4 players in each weight category.
- A 5-minute warm-up will be allowed before each game.
- Each participant plays a single round for a maximum of 4 minutes. If the match is tied, an additional 4 minutes are added to the game. If the victory is not determined during the additional minutes, the technical committee will deliberate and award the athlete most deserved of the win.
- Each player will be weighed on the competition day wearing their uniform to ensure the correct category.
- On match day, the technical committee will determine the fixtures depending on age, gender, and weight categories.

Rules & Regulations

Scoring:

- An Ippon worth 100 points is awarded for a full, forceful throw, a 20-second immobilization, or an opponent's concession. This will result in an immediate end to the match.
- A Waza-ari worth 10 points is awarded for a powerful throw or a 10 to 19-second hold. Two waza-aris lead to match termination.
- If a second waza-ari is awarded, it will be combined, and the result will be ippon, ending the match.
- A Yuko worth 1 point is awarded for a throw partially lacking in ippon elements or a 5 to 9-second hold. Multiple Yukos do not accumulate for higher scores.
- In the case of any situation not mentioned, the rules of the International Judo Federation will be applied.

Rules & Regulations

Penalties and fouls:

- Non-combativity (a player does not attack enough), intentionally stepping out of bounds, playing too defensively, or putting a hand directly on the opponent's face would lead to a warning.
- The fourth warning would lead to an immediate disqualification.
- Intentionally trying to injure the opponent, unsportsmanlike conduct or repeated violations would lead to immediate disqualification.

Weighing:

- Players may be required to undergo a weigh-in, as determined by the technical partners and organizing committee.
